

Do dress appropriately—you won't offend anyone by being too smart! I usually wear a suit jacket and smart trousers for an initial visit—jeans and a T-shirt don't usually project a very professional image. For future visits, have a look at how the majority of the staff are dressed and do likewise.